Cost: FREE

Luther College
Olin Hall
Decorah, Iowa

About the School...

The Northeast Iowa Narcotics Task Force and the Iowa Narcotics Officers Association are pleased to invite you to attend our annual two-day training session.

Our instructors this year are SA Douglas Hurley and SA Dan Stepleton, both of the Iowa Division of Narcotics Enforcement.

The course is designed to enable the student to effectively gather intelligence, interview informants and put together sound search warrants.

Attendees will gain an over-all perspective of the entire search warrant process. Participants will learn pre-search warrant objectives, officer safety, pre-planning and preparation relative to conducting search warrants, how to find what you need on the internet, current case law, as well as the actual writing of a search warrant.

This training will be a hands-on training. Students are encouraged to bring a lap top computer if they have one, or have access to one. Those that do not have access to a laptop computer, will be using a computer provided by Luther College. Students will also need a flash drive or jump drive. Each student will be provided with the latest search warrant templates.

Besides the computer and jump drive, each student will be responsible to bring to class; an address of suspected drug activity; included with the address, the student must also have the suspect's name, DOB, SSN, any and all other intel that you have. The search warrant that you prepare will be based on this information.
