

Prescription Drug Investigations Training

The Drug Enforcement Administration Omaha Division presents a FREE training seminar for street-level law enforcement officers.

Prescription drugs, including opioids, sedatives and stimulants, are the second most commonly abused drugs in the United States behind marijuana.

CLICK TO REGISTER

SPACE IS LIMITED

Date Tues, November 19th, 2019
Time 8 a.m.- 4 p.m.
Location SW Iowa Law Enforcement
 Training Center
 10073 192nd St.
 Council Bluffs, Iowa, 51503

Contact DEA Omaha Division Community Outreach Coordinator Erin Payne at 571-387-3550 for additional questions on how to register.

Officers Will Learn

- Roles and responsibilities of the DEA Diversion Control Division
- Most commonly diverted and abused prescription drugs and how to identify them
- How to conduct street level drug interdiction and what questions to ask, to develop better intelligence
- How to identify counterfeit pills
- What to observe when responding to calls at pharmacies and how to investigate fraudulent or forged prescription cases
- The correlation between prescription opioids and heroin
- Best practices for evidence collection at overdose scenes

